City crews will work this week to flush the filter lines, and the city should know about mid-week whether the pool will open by June 11, Hopkins said.

Citywide cleanup volunteers will lend a hand removing debris from the pool, power-washing the pump house and mopping the pavilions, he said.

"I'm pretty confident we'll be able to open the pool on time," Hopkins said. "I think it'll be ready for the summer."

The citywide cleanup starts about 8 a.m. Saturday, and the various volunteer groups will begin the unity march from their neighborhoods about noon. They will converge in Centre Square for a brief rally before marching to Riverside Park for lunch and entertainment.

Mike Plummer, president of the South Side Civic Association, said he expects as many as 50 volun-
